The April 1, 2003 meeting minutes were approved.

Review of Rally—Many thanks to the more than 100 people who volunteered their time at the Rally. Dane County has, by its proximity to the capitol, the responsibility to provide people to make the Rally happen. We agreed that a special thank you go to all those people who served as volunteers at the Rally. We had several comments on the Rally, many given to the 2003 Rally chair, Nancy Anderson

Wisconsin 'super waiver' and Autism waiver – Dan Rossiter explained the current proposal that the state has developed. We are waiting to see more details on the waiver and to see how many dollars this effort will bring to Dane County Human Services . Dan also shared a copy of the recently completed waiver that allows In Home Autism services to continue in our state. Contact Dan at 242-6473 or Ken Hobbs at 257-9738 for a copy.

Madison Special Education Parent Group – Next meeting is Thursday, May 8, 2003 at 122 E. Olin Ave.. We discussed ways to support and encourage the new group.

Next meeting dates—the Dane County People Can't Wait Coalition will meet on the first Tuesday of each month. The next meeting date will be June 3, 2003 at 12:30pm. Agenda topics for that meeting include a review of the State Budget and Dane County Human Services budget proposals. The meeting will be held at 122 E. Olin. Avenue, Madison WI.

The meeting adjourned at 2:05pm.

Respectfully submitted,

Ken Hobbs
